FINAL REJECTION

This office action is in response to the amendment and remarks filed 12/19/2006.

Response to Arguments

1. Applicant's arguments filed 12/19/2006 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

In response to applicant's argument that the Sherman's term "recirculation" is defined differently from the way that applicant defines the term. It is noted that the features upon which applicant relies (i.e., fuel mass flow rates included as part of the definition of the term recirculation) are not recited in the rejected claim(s). Although the claims are interpreted in light of the specification, limitations from the specification are not read into the claims. See In re Van Geuns, 988 F.2d 1181, 26 USPQ2d 1057 (Fed. Cir. 1993).

Since no other issue/argument is presented by applicant against the anticipation of the invention as recited in the claims by Sherman, the rejection is made final.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claims 1-3, 20-22, 41 and 42 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Sherman et al. (US. 3,851,467).

With respect to claims 1-3 and 41, Sherman teaches a gas turbine comprising: a compressor for compressing an oxidant and heating said oxidant by compression work in said compressor, a combustion chamber adapted to accept the compressed oxidant and including an exit means for flue gas and a turbine, wherein flue gas exiting the combustion chamber is re-circulated at a rate of from 100% to 200% and wherein said flue gas is re-circulated inside the combustion chamber. See particularly Figure 1 and column 1 lines 39-40.

With respect to claims 20-22 and 42, since Sherman has the same structure as claimed, it is inherent that Sherman's device would be able to perform the recited method steps. See particularly Figure 1 and column 1 lines 39-40.

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 8 and 27 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

5. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
